No. 15-767C
(Judge Campbell-Smith)

JOINT STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to the Court's order of October 5, 2022 (ECF No. 165), plaintiff ACLR, LLC and defendant, the United States, have conferred and respectfully file this joint status report. In its recent order, the Court identified the following three questions to which answers are required before the Court will consider the detailed evidence of costs incurred by plaintiff.

The parties propose additional filings and briefing to address the Court's questions pursuant to the following revised schedule:

Event	Deadline
Plaintiff files a summary describing its standard record keeping systems	October 11, 2022
Defendant's motion for summary judgment <sup>1</sup>	October 20, 2022
Plaintiff's response to defendant's motion for summary judgment	November 2, 2022
Defendant's reply in support of its motion for summary judgment	November 8, 2022
Joint Stipulations	November 10, 2022
Pretrial Conference	November 10, 2022
Trial <sup>2</sup>	November 15 -18, 2022

<sup>1</sup> ACLR objects to Defendant filing a motion for summary judgment at this stage of the proceedings but agrees to the proposed schedule in the event the Court allows Defendant to proceed with a motion for summary judgment.

<sup>2</sup> ACLR's position is that any reduced trial schedule should be solely limited to the issues raised by the Court in its September 27, 2022 and October 5, 2022 Orders. ACLR will need additional trial time in any trial for its costs claim and ample notice of when such a trial will be held to adequately prepare and coordinate with witnesses to testify. Defendant's position is that the scope of the trial should be left to the discretion of the Court following briefing on defendant's motion for summary judgment.
